We emphasize the sanctity of the Eucharist in our daily lives and encourage good stewardship and lifelong Catholic Christian education. Our consistent message is "Come home to Christ".*

WHAT DO YOU KNOW, FR. JOE?
ON RETREAT

I am grateful for all those who are filling in for me while I am on retreat. I am very much looking forward to this time away on retreat. I will be with the Intercessors of the Lamb in North Omaha. One of the expectations while on a silent retreat is that you do not use your cell phone, do not look at the internet or read your email, do not watch television, do not listen to the radio and do not do any casual reading. For the most part, you read the Bible and pray the Liturgy of the Hours, pray and do some spiritual reading. It is a bit of a challenge but it is spiritually enriching to do nothing but listen to the Word of God, rest and pray.

Each day I will meet with my spiritual director, celebrate a daily Mass and the rest of the time I will pray and reflect on the Bible passages given to me. There will be plenty of time for resting, riding my bike and walking. Please pray for me and be assured of my prayers for you. We are all in this together.

First Friday Eucharistic Adoration will be this Friday, Sept. 3rd from 8:30 a.m.—5 p.m. Please sign up on the sheet in the Gathering Space to spend an hour in prayer with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.
